MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

Jack:

I cleared with Carter Bowles, the local lawyer for the Dulles estate, delivering the screened papers to Mrs. Dulles. He saw no problem with this. He did, however, raise the question of whether we had found any of the Sullivan & Cromwell documents. I said you were aware of the question, but had not come across any such documents as yet. He said his files indicated the firm's documents were in the chrono files, particularly drawer one, which seems to be a time prior to Mr. Dulles' arrival in Washington, and he thought perhaps in succeeding drawers there might be odds and ends. I said you would be looking for any such material and we would let them know.
